

drought: a long period of time when there is very little rain or snow photoblog.statesman.com erosion: wearing away of the earth by wind, water, waves, or glaciers ecomerge.blogspot.com grasslands: land with grass growing on it plains: large areas of flat or mostly flat land library.ndsu.edu

agriculture: growing food or needed materials portfolios.chuckhaney.com topsoil: the upper part of the soil that is very good for growing food inhabitat.com

arid: a place without much rain www.clipartpal.com