Name_____ Vocabulary Test

Directions: Match the vocabulary word to its definition.

Vocabulary Word                    Definition

_____    1. line of best fit       A. a data point on a graph that is much bigger or much smaller than the next closest data point

_____    2. outlier                B. all the people living in a particular place

_____    3. line graph             C. a graph that shows the relationship between two sets of data

_____    4. scatter plot           D. a precise line drawn over the most data points possible

_____    5. population             E. a graph that shows change over time

__D_   1. line of best fit
__A_   2. outlier
__E_   3. line graph
__C_   4. scatter plot
__B_   5. population