Making the Blockade a “Ria”lity

Name: ________________________  Per: _________ Date: ___________

Report #1
Map of Confederate-Controlled Coastline

Directions:
1. Your task, as part of the Blockade Strategy Board is to come up with the best possible plan to limit or stop Confederate trade with Europe.
2. Looking at this map, place the Union naval fleets given to you in the best possible places to prevent this trade. Where you place them is up to you. You have 15 fleets of ships at your disposal. Use a small dot in the water to represent each fleet.
3. Once your group has placed all 15 fleets, answer the questions that follow and be prepared to discuss them with the rest of the board members (class).

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the fleets where you did?)
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
Question #2 – What additional information might help you prepare this plan?

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

Question #3 – What are some problems you can already see in the early stages of this plan?

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
Report #2
Map of Confederate-Controlled Coastline w/ Ports and Rivers

Directions:

4. Looking at this new information, reposition your 15 fleets on this map.
   Recall the limitations:
   i. Ships cannot be placed directly on the shoreline, as they will run aground.
   ii. All ports have protection that can destroy ships if placed too close.

5. Once your group has placed all 15 fleets answer the questions that follow, and be prepared to discuss them with the rest of the board members (class).

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the fleets where you did?)
Question #2 – How did this new information help in making your decisions?

Question #3 – Do you feel the plan would effective as you have it now? Why or why not?

Question #4 – What are some problems made evident now?
Directions:

6. Looking at this historical map of Fernandina and Cumberland Sound (drowned river valley) provided to you by your scouts, place your fleet to effectively block trade from leaving this port. You are given 1 fleet of 5 ships to complete this task. (Use 1/8 inch long dark lines to represent each ship)

7. Once your group has placed all 5 ships, answer the questions that follow and be prepared to discuss them with the rest of the board members (class).

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the ships where you did?)

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the ships where you did?)

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________
Question #2 – What was different about plotting your ships on this report as opposed to the others?

______________________________________________________

______________________________________________________

______________________________________________________

Question #3 – Which of the three reports was most effective in allowing you to blockade? Why?

______________________________________________________

______________________________________________________

______________________________________________________
Making the Blockade a “Ria”lity

Name: ________________________
Per: _________ Date: ___________

Report – Port at Mobile, AL
Map of Mobile, AL

Directions:

8. Looking at this historical map of Mobile and Mobile Bay (drowned river valley) provided to you by your scouts, place your fleet to effectively block trade from leaving this port. You are given 1 fleet of 5 ships to complete this task. (Use 1/8 inch dark lines to represent each ship)

9. Once your group has placed all 5 ships, answer the questions that follow and be prepared to discuss them with the rest of the board members (class).

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the ships where you did?)

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Courtesy of Sons of the South (www.sonsofthesouth.net)
Question #2 – What was different about plotting your ships on this report as opposed to the others?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Question #3 – Which of the three reports was most effective in allowing you to blockade? Why?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
Directions:

10. Looking at this historical map of Savannah and Tybee Sound (drowned river valley) provided to you by your scouts, place your fleet to effectively block trade from leaving this port.

You are given 1 fleet of 5 ships to complete this task. (Use 1/8 inch dark lines to represent each ship)

11. Once your group has placed all 5 ships, answer the questions that follow and be prepared to discuss them with the rest of the board members (class).

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the ships where you did?)
Question #2 – What was different about plotting your ships on this report as opposed to the others?

Question #3 – Which of the three reports was most effective in allowing you to blockade? Why?
Making the Blockade a “Ria”lity
Name: ______________________
Per: _________ Date: __________

Report – Port at Wilmington, NC
Map of Wilmington, NC

Directions:

12. Looking at this historical map of Wilmington and the Cape River Valley (drowned river valley) provided to you by your scouts, place your fleet to effectively block trade from leaving this port. You are given 1 fleet of 5 ships to complete this task. (Use 1/8 inch dark lines to represent each ship)

13. Once your group has placed all 5 ships, answer the questions that follow and be prepared to discuss them with the rest of the board members (class).

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the ships where you did?)

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Courtesy of Sons of the South (www.sonsofthesouth.net)
Question #2 – What was different about plotting your ships on this report as opposed to the others?
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
Question #3 – Which of the three reports was most effective in allowing you to blockade? Why?
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
Making the Blockade a “Ria”lity

Report – Port at Charleston, SC
Map of Charleston, SC

Directions:

14. Looking at this historical map of Charleston and the Charleston Harbor (drowned river valley) provided to you by your scouts, place your fleet to effectively block trade from leaving this port. You are given 1 fleet of 5 ships to complete this task. (Use 1/8 inch dark lines to represent each ship)

15. Once your group has placed all 5 ships, answer the questions that follow and be prepared to discuss them with the rest of the board members (class).

Question #1 – Explain the reasoning behind your placement of the blockade. (Why did you place the ships where you did?)

 Courtesy of Sons of the South (www.sonsofthesouth.net)
Question #2 – What was different about plotting your ships on this report as opposed to the others?

Question #3 – Which of the three reports was most effective in allowing you to blockade? Why?
Assessment – Making the Blockade a “Ria”lity

Part One
An “I am” poem will be started in class, completed at home (if needed) and be shared with the class tomorrow. Grading: The “I am” poem will be graded by assigning 1 point to each line that should be accurately completed (or 17 points) plus 1 point for title, and 2 points for good effort.

“I am” Poem

Directions – Take on the part of a ship in the Union blockade, a ria (drowned river valley), or a southern port city (name the city), and on a separate sheet of paper create an “I am” poem by completing each prompt below as if you were that object. The first and last “I am” lines should be the same (i.e. “I am a ship in the Union blockade”):

I am
I wonder
I hear
I see
I am
I pretend
I feel
I touch
I worry
I cry
I am
I understand
I say
I dream
I try
I hope
I am
Assessment – Making the Blockade a “Ria”lity

Part Two    Answer the following essay question in 5 to 7 complete sentences. Be sure to address all parts of the question.

Essay

What impact or significance did the physical geography of southern ports have on influencing the outcome of Winfield Scott’s Anaconda Plan? Use a specific example to make your argument.

Grading: Use the following rubric to grade each essay answer:

4: Student accurately describes how a ria is formed, uses a case study example and explains the impact of drowned river valleys (rias) thoroughly and accurately in regards to the Civil War.
3: Student uses a case study example and explains the impact of drowned river valleys (rias) thoroughly and accurately in regards to the Civil War.
2: Student mentions rias but does not use a case study example or provide depth of explanation
1: Student does not mention rias or provide an accurate example.