Liberty Bell

The Liberty Bell is the symbol of freedom in the United States. It rang when the Declaration of Independence was signed. The Bell is made mostly of copper and tin. Today, the Liberty Bell hangs in Philadelphia.

American Flag

The United States flag has 13 stripes that represent the 13 original colonies. Today the 50 stars represent the 50 states in the U.S.

Pledge of Allegiance

The Pledge of Allegiance is a promise of loyalty to the United States. It says:

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic
for which it stands,
one nation, under God,
indivisible,
with liberty and justice
for all.

Lincoln Memorial

Located in Washington, D.C., the Lincoln Memorial honors Abraham Lincoln, the 16th President of the United States. Lincoln was president during the Civil War (1861-65). The memorial symbolizes all people should be free.

America the Beautiful

Katharine Lee Bates. Bates wrote this song in 1893 while on a trip to Colorado. The view was so beautiful that it inspired her to write the song.

Capitol

The U.S. Capitol is where Congress meets and conducts business.

Washington Monument

This four-sided stone structure honors the "Father of our Country," George Washington. At just over 555 feet tall, the Washington Monument towers over everything in Washington, D.C.

Bald Eagle

The bald eagle is a large, powerful, brown bird with a white head and tail. The Founding Fathers chose the bald eagle to be the national bird in 1782.

Statue of Liberty

The Statue of Liberty is located in New York. The Statue of Liberty symbolizes freedom. The Statue was a gift from France. She holds a torch, which represents liberty.

The White House

The White House is the home of the President of the United States. Its address is 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, D.C. Every President except George Washington has lived there.

National Anthem

The Star-Spangled Banner is the national anthem. Francis Scott Key wrote it in 1814. He watched a nighttime battle between England and America. When the American flag was still flying in the morning, he wrote these words about the flag:

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight;
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
