Dear Gracie,

How are you? This is Hannah, your best friend. You should really move to Chicago. I have even made a list of why you should. Here it is:

1. Your parents can get better jobs.
2. We have better health care and education here.
3. There is more money and food.
4. In the South, the court system is unfair.
5. Everyone judges you by the color of your skin in the South.
6. You don't get equal education like the whites in the South.

Since your dad works for the train company, your family could get special deals. Beg your parents to come. I miss you!

Yours truly,

Hannah Amble
