

Settlements Graphic Organizer Key

Physical features that promotes settlements	Physical features that prohibit settlements
large rivers	deserts
river valleys	mountain ranges
coastlines	deep gorges
lakes	poor soil
flat, fertile land	volcanoes forests

Settlements Graphic Organizer

Physical features that promotes settlements	Physical features that prohibit settlements

Cause and Effect Graphic Organizer Key

Cause (Why it happened)	Effect (What happened)
They needed water to meet their basic needs	people settled near water
Ships could bring goods to the people and they could trade.	people settled near rivers and coastlines
So they could transport goods	people settled near trails

Cause and Effect Graphic Organizer

Cause (Why it happened)	Effect (What happened)

Paragraph Frame

In the _____ part of the United States the lights are located _____ because _____.

One physical feature that promotes settlement is _____ _____ because _____

_____.

Another physical feature that promotes settlement is _____ _____ because _____

_____.

There was (was not) a pattern to the location of the lights because _____.

I learned that the location of the lights _____

_____.

Checklist for Paragraph Frame

1. _____ Paragraph is easy to read
2. _____ Write in the correct intermediate direction (NE, SW, etc.) of the United States map that they are assigned.
3. _____ Write where the lights are located.
4. _____ Write one physical feature that promotes settlement.
5. _____ Write why this physical feature promotes settlement.
6. _____ Write a second physical feature that promotes settlement.
7. _____ Write why this second physical feature promotes settlement.
8. _____ Write if there was a pattern for the lights or not.
9. _____ Write why there was or was not a pattern for the lights.
10. _____ Write what they learned about the location of their lights.

Mastery: for Immediate and above 8 out of 10

Mastery for Beginning complete 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and 8

