

GROWTH OF PHOENIX CHART 1

Name

STUDENT
SAMPLE

METROPOLITAN PHOENIX GROWTH TODAY

Phoenix is the 6th largest city in the U.S. Name various factors that one would experience living in a large metropolitan city, such as Phoenix.

(Note: These are some suggestions. You may add more to your own lists.)

Factors of change	Phoenix in 2000 Population 1,240,774+
Transportation and Roads How do people move around today?	cars, buses, bikes, blades, scooters, free ways
Economics Agriculture - Farming What kinds of food and animals are raised? Where do people get their food? Other Food Businesses Misc. Businesses (not food)	some cotton some citrus trees restaurants, grocery stores, fast food
Social Activities Recreation Games	computer, t.v., read scooter, blade, bike, swim, card games board games, etc.
Human Adaptation How do people adapt to the hot climate and desert environment?	air conditioning some evap-cooling, fans, squirt bottles
Land Use (Downtown Phoenix)	buildings, parks, etc.
Landmarks Cultural (buildings) and/or Physical (land)	Capitol, westward Ho Building Symphony Hall.
Reasons for Migration	Business, Health, Weather, Stationed in military.

STUDENT SAMPLE

GROWTH OF PHOENIX CHART 2 Name _____

PHOENIX GROWTH - 1910 TO 1930

Read the stories of people who have experienced Phoenix change from a rural to urban community. List their information below to compare the different changes over time.

Put the information in only one box.

*Population of Phoenix was taken from the Phoenix Census Population Chart.

Factors of change	Cliff's Story 1910s - Population 11,134*	Martha's Story 1930s - Population 48,118*
Transportation and Roads How did people move around then?	Street cars, Horses and covered wagons, trucks	most used Street cars
Economics Agriculture - Farming What kinds of food and animals were raised? Where did people get their food? Other Food Businesses Misc. Businesses(not food)	citrus, cantaloupe, water melons, fig trees. goats, chickens, roasters, Horses, meat markets and grocery stores. Indians wares	Cantaloupe and water melons in Summer and lettuce in fall and winter. Japanese truck-farming Mexican selling tomatoes Peanogs, New berries, and Kress
Social Activities Recreation Games	"pig tails" Climbing trees, rides bike.	played baseball and other ball games, Climb trees, Skated, and Swam
Human Adaptation How did people adapt to the hot climate and desert environment?	Ice blocks Swimming	used old fan.
Land Use Downtown Phoenix	farmland	very small
Landmarks Cultural (buildings) and/or Physical (land)	Schools, Capitol, Stores.	theatres, stores, few restaurants.
Reasons for Migration	Not given	Not given

STUDENT SAMPLE

GROWTH OF PHOENIX CHART 3 Name _____ PHOENIX GROWTH – 1930 TO 1960

Read the stories of people who have experienced Phoenix change from a rural to urban community. List their information below to compare the different changes over time.

Put the information in only one box. (Note: Land Use expands beyond downtown area.)

*Population of Phoenix was taken from the Phoenix Census Population Chart.

Factors of change	Viola's Story 1930s – Population 48,118*	Floyd's Story 1960s – Population 439,170*
Transportation and Roads How did people move around then?	Street cars	automobiles, Streetcars
Economics Agriculture - Farming What kinds of food and animals were raised? Where did people get their food?	Citrus groves	alfalfa and cotton, onions, lettuce radishes etc. roses
Other Food Businesses Misc. Businesses (not food)	Ford Hotel - Newberrys Kress Pennys	Crop spray, grocery Stores, restaurants construction, electronics
Social Activities Recreation Games	Jacks family picnics	went out to eat.
Human Adaptation How did people adapt to the hot climate and desert environment?	Slept on porches	wet hay bails and a fan and evaporative cooling
Land Use Downtown Phoenix and surrounding area	South Mountain Park	Crops
Landmarks Cultural (buildings) and/or Physical (land)	Capitol, Ford Hotel, Stores, Adams School and Ymca.	Schools, churches apartments, stores etc.
Reasons for Migration	her brother's pneumonia	daughters Bronchitis