

BLACKBEARD

WRITTEN BY SANDY MARTINEZ

Illustrated by _____

Blackbeard was a pirate captain.

His real name was Edward Teach!

He wore red ribbons at the end of each braid in his beard.

He was scary looking, and people were afraid of him.

Blackbeard and his pirates would sail around the islands in the Caribbean, looking for other ships to rob.

He could read the directions on a map-north, east, south and west.

Other people say he spent all the money.

Some people say he buried his treasure and must have drawn maps.

We will never know for sure.
