

prey: an animal that becomes food for another animal

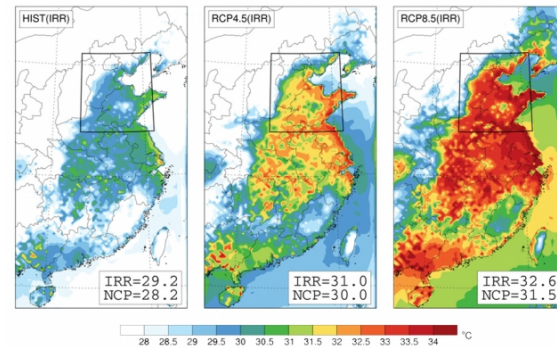

<https://fair-science.blogspot.com/2014/05/predator-prey-population-cycles.html>

predator: animal that lives by killing other animals for food

<https://www.churchillscience.ca/>

climate change: changes in the Earth's weather patterns

<http://news.mit.edu/2018/china-could-face-deadly-heat-waves-due-climate-change-0731>

tundra: a flat area of land in the northern parts of the world where there are no trees and the ground is always frozen

<https://sciencestruck.com/tundra-biome-tundra-plants-animals>