

North, South, East, West – These are directions. We use them on a map and they tell us what way to turn.

http://www.workforce.az.gov/admin/uploadedimages/1535_CompassRose.jpg

Map – We use a map to tell us where we are going.

<http://www.dot.wisconsin.gov/travel/gis/winterroads/test-map.gif>

Sidewalk – The sidewalk is a strip beside the road that we walk on.

<http://www.fta.dot.gov/images/side1.jpg>

Street – A street is what cars drive on. We might drive on many streets to get to school, we also might walk on many streets.

<http://www.oundle.gov.uk/images/North%20Street.jpg>

Directions – We give directions to people so they can find where they are going. Directions often tell us what way to turn, and where to stop.

<http://www.flagstaff.az.gov/images/pages/N527/Officer%20Giving%20Directions.jpg>

Crosswalk – We cross streets in a crosswalk. Sometimes there are white lines on the street, so we know that is a crosswalk. Usually there is a person, a crossing guard who is there to tell us when it is safe to walk.

<http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov/people/injury/pedbimot/bike/Safe-Routes-2002/images/cross.jpg>