

<https://www.activesustainability.com/environment/world-wetlands-day/>

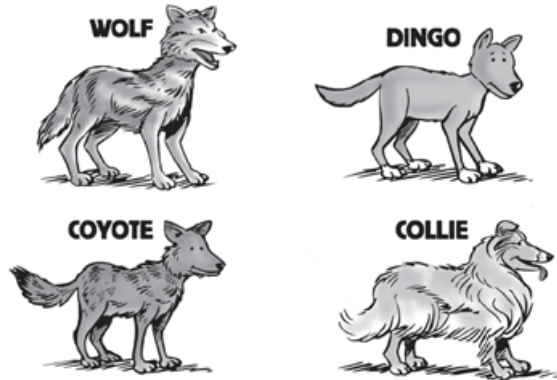

<http://epa.gov/ne/composting/images/composting.jpg>

wetlands – land that, at least some of the time, is very wet

nutrients – a substance that plants need to live and grow

The Dog Species

<https://answersingenesis.org/creation-science/baraminology/what-are-kinds-in-genesis/>

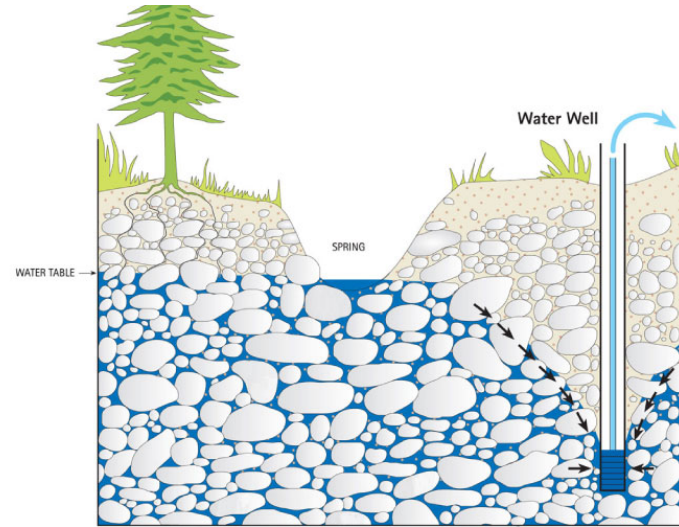

<https://ambon-us.org/projects/sediment/>

species – a group of animals or plants that are similar and can create offspring

sediment – material (as stones and sand) left by water, wind, or glaciers

<https://www.fisheries.noaa.gov/feature-story/announcing-2018-habitat-month-photo-contest-winners>

<https://www.marlborough.govt.nz/environment/groundwater>

habitat –place where a plant or animal naturally lives

groundwater – water within the earth that supplies wells and springs